TERMS AND CONDITIONS - HIGHLIGHTS

Renting

Monthly rental: Violin&Co does not prorate rental charges. If you wish to cancel the contract, please return the instrument before the 15th of the month, when the next payment is due.

Annual rental: NO REFUND if you decide to return the instrument before the end of the contract. We offer store credit towards the purchase of instruments, cases, bows, accessories.

The rental agreement covers routine maintenance necessary to keep the instrument in proper playing condition. We will make adjustments (bridge and pegs) to the instrument without charge during the rental period provided the account is in good standing. The contract also covers one full set of student strings per rental year. Replacement of broken strings does not fall under routine maintenance: breakage is considered negligence due to improper tuning. Broken strings must be replaced with same or equal quality strings, by the renter, through Violin & Co. only.

Violin&Co. has the right to cancel a rental contract and recall the instrument in the event of repeated incidents of abuse or prolonged delinquent status.

All rental instruments must be exclusively maintained and repaired by Violin&Co.

Repair and Damage

The Insurance or DRC ("Damage Repair Coverage") covers:

1) open seams, 2) breakage and adjustments to the sound post or bridge 3) ungluing of the fingerboard, 4) minor varnish wear, 5) bow re-hair/repair, and 6) one bow replacement per year-per instrument, if the bow is damaged beyond repair.

The Insurance (DRC) does NOT cover: rented wooden bows broken at the stick or tip (due to their fragility).

Customers without DRC ("Damage Repair Coverage") are responsible for paying the full retail value of the rental instruments, as noted on the rental application, if the instrument is damaged beyond repair.

Rental Credit towards Purchase

Violin & Co. does not operate on a rent-to-own basis. However, there is RENTAL CREDIT that can be applied toward the purchase of a NEW INSTRUMENT. The rental instrument is NOT FOR SALE.

Credits and discounts depend on the duration of the rental contract and a history of good standing. Rental credit cannot be used toward services, accessories, cases, or bows.

TRADE IN. Should you use your rental credit to purchase an instrument and wish to upgrade in the future, Violin & Co. will issue a 60% credit toward the purchase of an upgraded instrument whose value is 25% greater than that of the one traded in. The 60% is of the final original purchase price, after all discounts and credits were applied. Violin & Co. will never issue a cash refund of rental credit.

Terms & Conditions

Please read the following Terms and Conditions (herein referred to as T&Cs) carefully BEFORE signing the rental agreement with JCStrings d/b/a Violin & Co. (herein referred to as Violin & Co.) We may modify these T&Cs, for any reason at any time, by posting a new version on Our Website and informing the current renters via electronic mail. The continuation of the instrument rental following the posting of modified terms will be subject to the current T&Cs in effect. If you are not in agreement with the new T&Cs, please return our instrument as soon as possible to end your rental contract.

Your signature on the rental application certifies the rental of the described instrument, and you may continue to rent it as long as you desire. By signing this agreement, you agree to the following terms: i) the rental fee and rental Damage Repair Coverage payment is not refundable. ii) the instrument may be returned to Violin & Co. at any time after the trial period without further obligation, providing your account is current. iii) this is a rental contract only and is NOT a “rent-to-own” agreement. iv) Violin & Co. does not prorate the rental charges therefor if you wish to cancel the contract, please return the instrument before the next payment is due.

All NEW instrument rental contracts are subject to a minimum rental period of four (4) months (herein referred to as “Trial Period”). Including, but not limited to, all returning customers who have terminated contracts and wish to begin a new rental. Violin & Co. offers a five dollar ($5.00) per month discount to households renting multiple instruments, the discount is valid on a maximum of two additional instruments. Other discounts on instrument rentals are available with our “School Year” promotion (rental duration of nine (9) months) and further discounts on twelve (12) month rentals with payment made in full at the time of signing. A full table of prices is available upon request. If a rental contract begins on a discounted rate (nine (9) or twelve (12) month plan) and reverts to a month-to-month payment plan once the original contract has ended the discounted rate is void and the contract will continue with Violin & Co.'s standard monthly rates, refer to “Standard Instrument Rentals” for pricing chart.

1. Standard Instrument Rentals: Standard rentals are budget-friendly without sacrificing sound. They are designed for students looking to have a well-adjusted instrument that brings out their best sound. Violin & Co. strongly believes the quality of the rental instrument is a crucial factor in the student's ability to learn to play any instrument. Our philosophy is to invest in higher quality instruments, replace the factory strings and bridges, and finely tune each instrument for each of our customers. All of our rental instruments undergo the same professional setup with high quality European or D’Addario “Prelude” strings, German tailpiece, and bridge carved in our shop. String upgrades are available on rental instruments upon request for an additional fee. Violin & Co. has the right to cancel any rental contract and recall the instrument in the event of repeated incidents of abuse or prolong delinquent status.

In addition, broken strings must be replaced with same or equal quality strings, by the renter, through Violin & Co. only. The DRC will not cover theft or loss without documented proof from law officials. The DRC does not cover mysterious disappearance, negligence, or malicious damage. Such determination as to negligence or malicious damage will be at the sole discretion of Violin & Co. management and shall be reasonably made based on our years of experience. In addition to the routine maintenance included with the standard rental agreement, the DRC covers: i) open seams, ii) breakage and adjustments to the sound post or bridge iii) ungluing of the fingerboard, iv) minor varnish wear, and v) bow re-hair/repair. The DRC will also cover up to one bow replacement, per instrument, in cases where the bow is damaged beyond repair. Also, due to their fragility, rented wooden bows broken at the stick or tip are NOT cover. Customers renting a cello will be charged a fee of one hundred dollars ($100) if the neck breaks off of the instrument, regardless of how it occurred. If the instrument is damaged beyond repair or if the cost of repair outweighs the cost of the instrument, the customer is responsible for paying the deductible listed below and as noted on their contract. The DRC is automatically applied to any and all rental agreement unless a Liability waiver is signed. Once the DRC is waived it cannot be added at a later time. The DRC cannot be waived on rentals through schools, or school programs, where the musician is under the age of 14. Please note: The DRC agreement is void if the account is delinquent by more than seven days. Violin & Co. reserves the right to discontinue existing DRC coverage in the event of repeated incidents of abuse.
